

Best Practices 2018-19

I Best Practice

Title of the Practice: Financial Aid to the deserving students by the college

Objectives of the Practice

It has been obtained from the profile that students joining various courses of the college that there are many students coming from the rural areas with low economic back ground. Their parents are unable to provide them a sustained financial support because agriculture, being a gamble with rain in the district, is not a source of assured income. So, the noble objectives of the practice are :

- To extend financial aid to the poor students, especially from the rural, to save them from discontinuation of their studies owing to poverty.
- To support financially all the deserving poor students without any discrimination of caste, creed or gender.
- To promote the 'equality' among the students
- To inculcate the values of 'generosity' and a 'sense of social responsibility' among the students.

The expected outcome is that the students should be able to complete their degrees with good marks. The beneficiaries should treat the needy with the principle of 'lend a helping hand without discrimination.'

The Context

The noble objective had its teething as well as challenging troubles in its designing and implementation.

- Pooling up of the required resources was a tough task.
- After comprehensive deliberations with students and teachers, it was decided to extend the benefit to all the poor students, who do not have the advantage of government or endowment scholarships, without any discrimination of caste, creed or gender.
- Verification of the financial backwardness of the aspirants was yet another challenge.
- The management has insisted on strict adherence to the rules framed. about this fund in spite of the influential sections' and caste associations' undue interference in the implementation of the practice.

The Practice

People in rural areas have meagre resources available which are used primarily to make both ends meet. So, sending their children to the town for higher education becomes almost impossibility for the poor parents in the rural areas, in the context of higher education demanding higher amounts of money. Though, sometimes, they do venture to admit their children to colleges in the town, they are unable to give sustained financial support throughout the course of study because agriculture is the main element of livelihood in the district, is not a source of assured income. So, it is evident that without financial support from an external source, the rural youth cannot hope to successfully complete their higher studies.

Evidence of Success

college gave fee concession to meritorious students who have secured merit positions in the university. College also gave concession in fee to those students who have secured positions in university youth festival and sports events of the university.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required

In the beginning of designing the best practice, some groups of the students opposed the idea that the welfare scholarship holders too should be given the opportunity. College require more resources to offer this practice to more students.
